Oriental Tourist Rush, Kennedy Says, Just Besinning.

"This Asiatic tourist travel is just beginning."

J. A. Kennedy, president of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., made the foregoing remark with emphasis yesterday. As he had returned from San Francisco the previous day, no doubt the dictum quoted reflects a Coast opinion.

"Yes, it is just beginning," Mr. Kennedy went on to say. "Tourist travel to the Orient is going to reach enormous proportions.

"Tourists from Europe are coming this way in prodigious numbers. Europeans, having seen the rest of the world, want to see Asia. And Honolulu will get a great many stopovers if things are properly worked.

"The amount of money tourists leave in a place is something of which folks have but little knowl-It is immense. What is exchanges must be known to convey an adequate impression of the truth. An enormous amount of money changes hands through the banks in every Coast city frequented by tour-

Mr. Kennedy imparted some exact statistical information regarding the bank deposits by tourists in one particular city, but had reasons for not giving permission to publish the statement. Perhaps one reason for confidential treatment of the figures was that they would make the ears of local promotionists tingle unto imperilment of their hearing. Certainly there would be a loud tingling, for the amount for thirty days was not in hundreds of thousands. It was in mil-

ITTLE DEAD DOG BEACHES THE MORGUE

There was wild scurrying among the police and the health office people vesterday morning. Some policemen had found what they thought was a had found what they thought was a dead baby, carefully wrapped in wet driver and two husky native policemen conveyed the find in due state and a great deal of haste to the morgue. Then there was a great telephoning and presently, when the proper officials came duly to hand, the package was unwrapped, with most delicate care. It disclosed, first, a baby's rattle of ivory. Then there was a teething ring, and a little bedraggled doll. Lastly, in the folds of the wet cloth, there was the body -of a little dead dog.
